

2010 Ladies Competition Terms & Conditions

- Contestants must be 18 years of age or over.
- Contestants must be able to attend the Ladies Day final on Friday 17 September. Any contestant who is eligible to participate in the Ladies Day final on Friday 17 September and fails to attend will lose all rights in the competition and the competition will be decided on the basis that the person involved was never a participant.
- Any person who is an employee of Ayr Racecourse, Kerr & Smith, Iveco, Stewart Travel or Alex Cairncross Silver Gifts is not eligible to participate.
- The Cruise is subject to separate terms and conditions.
- If for any reason an advertised prize is unavailable, Ayr Racecourse reserves the right at its absolute discretion to substitute a similar prize of equivalent or greater value.
- Prizes cannot be exchanged or transferred and no cash alternative will be offered. Only one prize will be awarded per person.
- Where prizes are provided by an external company, the winner will be required to deal directly with the provider. Ayr Racecourse will have no responsibility for the prizes and terms and conditions of such.
- As we are governed by the Rules of Racing, if there is a non-runner then the person holding that number of the horse will unfortunately be eliminated from the competition. It is the official result that will apply. In the event of any dead heat, a further draw will determine the final placings.
- Photographs taken of contestants will be used for publicity purposes both for the competition and future events/promotional materials.
- All decisions of Ayr Racecourse will be final and binding. No correspondence will be entered into.
- By entering the competition, entrants will be deemed to have read and understood these rules and be bound by them.
